in the office of Senator Kanneth E. Kenting, who was inquiring about	i ibe Director's termination authority as contained to section 102(c) of the National Security Act. I discussed this authority with Miss Cuming it developed that she was primarily interested in knowing whether or	* not the Director's authority evald be delegated. I advised her that it	14 the Agency's interpretation of this section this authority was limited to the Director, or in his absence, to the Acting Director but was no atherwise delegable. Miss Canningham said she was interested in t	ini a aspect of the Director's authority to connection with H. R. 950, a si-	milar bill concerning the possible termination of NEA employees. This bit places the authority in the Secretary of Delense subject to delegation	u
